

CincoDías

14 Sept. 2011 08:45

Five Spanish destinations among top 10 destinations for British tourists

According the latest 2011 Homeaway survey, the UK's number one holiday rentals site, Spain is consolidating its position as one of the favourite European destinations for British tourists, in particular Andalusia and the Canary Islands, the two top destinations.

Other Spanish destinations include the Balearic Islands (5th position), the region of Valencia (8th position) and Catalonia (9th position) which are also included among the top ten tourist destinations chosen by British tourists this year.

*Top 10 European destinations in the first half 2011

Top 10

1. Andalusia, Spain
2. Tenerife, Canary Islands
3. London, England
4. Cote d'Azur – Riviera, France
5. Balearic Islands, Spain
6. Rhone-Alps, France
7. Algarve, Portugal
8. Alicante-Costa Blanca, Spain
9. Catalonia, Spain
10. Ile-de-France

*In terms of number of enquiries for holidays in the first half 2011 on HomeAway.co.uk